ONTO CLARKSBURG.

Ohio County Delegation to District Delegate Convention

LEFT ON SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

The Crowd Pulling for Horkheimer, and Expects to Land the Genial Colonel a Winner—Captain O'Brien, of Gilmer, Likely to be Selected as Horkheimer's Side Partner—State Convention on Tuesday.

Yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock the Ohio county delegation to the First congressional district delegate convention, to be held at Clarksburg this afternoon, and which will select the First district's two delegates and two alternates to the Philadelphia national nominating convention, left via the Baltimore & Ohio road. They spent last night at Fairmont and go to Clarksburg this morning. In the party were a number of prominent leaders, including Colonel Horkheimer, Messrs. James K. Hall, John Frew, Hugh Sterling, Sheriff Richards, Circuit Court Clerk Henning and almost twenty-five others. Mayor C. B. Scott, of Bethany, and several others from the Pan Handle went out on the midnight train.

The convention is likely to be a brief affair, there being but two active candidates in the field for delegate, in the person of Colonel Morris Horkheimer, of Ohio county, and Captain Daniel U. O'Brien, of Gilmer county. Doubtless the pair will go through without opposition. As to the alternates there has been little talk in advance of the convention.

The same delegation goes to Fairmont on Tuesday for the state delegate convention, where four delegates-at-large and four alternates-at-large to the national convention will be chosen. Owing to the fact that the national convention is only a McKinley ratification meeting this year, there is not the usual scramble for the honor of attending. In the First district the friends of Mr. John Frew, of Wheeling, are mentioning his name, and it meets with hearty approval. Mr. Frew, however, has not yet said that he would accept the honor. In the Third district Mr. J. E. Dana, of Kanawha, is being pushed for delegate-at-large, and will doubtless be one of the "big four."

Ohio county's delegates to the two conventions are the following: Washington—Alex. Campbell, E. Buckman, B. W. Connelly, C. J. Rawling, Charles Oliver, H. B. Drabell and Charles O. Roemer.

Madison—C. W. Franschheim, A. L. White, Hugh Sterling, H. S. Allison, C. D. McCarty, N. C. Hamilton, J. V. L. Rogers.

Clay—Max Srolowitz, Dr. C. A. Wingerter, John E. Schellhase, Dr. B. H. Stillyard, L. G. Williams, Charles E. VanKeuren and W. B. McMechen.

Union—John Frew, W. H. Cassell, S. G. Smith, B. F. Caldwell, Thomas Shanley, James McLaughlin and Daniel West.

Centre—W. H. Buecy, C. H. Hennings, John Roemer, Wm. Nesbitt, Lee Dobbs, W. M. L. Dowler and Stephen Waterhouse.

Webster—George Bowers, Herbert Preere, Henry Rosenberg, Wm. H. Rogers, Charles Moore, Harry Kreuger and Wm. Shilds.

Ritchie—W. J. Steen, George Ball, Charles E. Dannenberg, Edward Rarcliffe, Chas. Calterbaugh, Grant Goodwin and Fred Volte, Jr.

Triadelphia—S. M. Chase, E. C. Flaccus, Levi P. Bogard, P. M. Strickland, James Hill and Jesse McCausland.

Liberty—Dr. J. R. Caldwell, J. V. Giffen, F. W. Moore, H. L. McCammon, Edward Hervey and T. W. Maxwell.

Richland—D. A. Waddle, A. N. McCulloch, William Green, George Eagleston, Jacob Eagleston and Omar McCulloch.

The Republicans of McMechen Saturday evening elected the following delegates to the Clarksburg and Fairmont conventions: S. R. Hansen, James E. Doyle, alternates, C. P. Kinney and B. F. Hood. Owing to some misunderstanding the meeting called for the same purpose at Benwood failed to materialize.

Washington district of Marshall county, will be represented by the following: Clarksburg, J. E. Hooton, B. F. Meighen, J. C. Parkinson, J. E. Roberts, Scott Littleton and Kyle Wallace; Fairmont, J. W. Burchinal, J. A. Bloyd, R. S. Peters, S. E. Jones, T. G. Hammond and Lee Hammond.

One Victim Dies.

At his home in Benwood, early Saturday morning there occurred the death of Richard K. Satterfield, one of the victims of the recent boiler explosion at the Riverside. Mr. Satterfield was in a critical condition all week, and his recovery from the time of the accident was considered doubtful. He is survived by a widow and two children, Lowman and Miss Hattie Satterfield, both grown up, and they have the heartfelt sympathy of many friends. Mr. Satterfield was one of Benwood's sterling citizens and liked and respected by all who knew him. He came to Benwood from Marion county in 1887, and the remains will be taken to his former home in Colfax, Marion county, to-day for interment. There were about a dozen injured by the explosion, but all the others have about recovered.
